

Advance Care Planning

What is advance care planning?

Advance care planning is the process where you identify your values and wishes for your health care at a future time if you are no longer capable of making choices for yourself.

What is an advance directive (AD)?

An advance directive (AD) is a legal form that helps your doctors and loved ones understand your wishes about medical and mental health care. It can help them decide about treatments if you are not able to decide for yourself. An advance directive protects your right to make your own medically-related decisions. And, it provides the best way to ensure that your future medical care reflects your wishes.

The VA AD includes sections that allow you to identify a Health Care Agent and to specify your treatment preferences. Those sections are:

- Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care – Allows you to identify a Health Care Agent, the person who would make health care decisions for you if you are unable to make decisions for yourself.
- Living Will – Allows you to indicate the treatments you would and would not want, such as resuscitation, mechanical ventilation (breathing machine) and feeding tube.

Ask your social worker for a VA AD form or go to www.va.gov/vaforms for the form and related information. You can also talk with your social worker if you need help starting a conversation with loved ones about your wishes or completing the advance directive.

How do I get started?

- Think about the medical treatments and care you would or would not want if you were no longer able to make those choices. The Values Worksheet on the other side of this handout can help you get started.
- Choose your Health Care Agent and talk with them about your values and wishes.
- Complete a VA advance directive.

What do I do with the advance directive (AD) after I fill it out?

Put the original in a safe and easy-to-access place. Put a note on the copies about where the original is kept. Give copies to your health care provider, Health Care Agent and a family member.

While an AD does not expire, you can cancel or change it at any time. Review your AD from time to time. Your preferences for future health care may change based on changes in: your health or where you live, who provides support or care for you, or new medical treatments.

Non-VA Advance Directives

VA accepts state-authorized and Department of Defense advance directives. Your state may also have a separate Mental Health AD. If you complete a VA advance directive, you do not need to complete a separate one for mental health. You can record those preferences on your VA AD. Ask your social worker if you have questions about these documents. To learn more visit www.va.gov/geriatrics or www.va.gov/Ethics.
