Q19: What is your community’s definition of ending Veteran homelessness? Please tell us about the strategies included in your plan. Please provide a succinct response. Our community is looking at a comprehensive solution to this problem. As such, we recognize there are numerous portals through which we can be apprised of new vets and their families and that once we are successful in housing all currently known vets, there will be an ongoing stream of new vets and their families. As a result, we are working collaboratively to provide easy access to all likely entry points so that we can know that all identified veterans and their families are rapidly connected and engaged with appropriate resources (or at least be given the option to receive appropriate services). Going forward, we are creating a system that will have a more and more efficient way of receiving referrals from a progressively broader and more coordinated array of service providers.

Our target is to identify, prioritize, connect and support all unsheltered vets and their families at any point in time.
