Chelsea Watson presided over the call. Presentation on the re-application process.

a. The Re-Application NOFA is in concurrence at VACO and expected to be published in December 2016.

b. The PowerPoint presentation is on the GPD Provider website.

c. The GPD Program office will be holding another conference call on November 21, 2016 to answer questions regarding the NOFA. Grantees should use the following email address to submit questions: GPDgrants@va.gov

d. Once the NOFA is published in the Federal Register, The GPD Program office will have a series of technical assistance calls.

e. The Notice will announce the availability of funding for currently operational grantees. Funding will be time-limited for one year; with two one-year renewal options.

f. We anticipate grantees will have approximately 90 days to submit applications once the NOFA is published in the Federal Register.

g. There will be five models grantees may apply for. Each model requires a separate application per medical center. The NOFA will have the details pertaining to each model.
