

Military Health History

Pocket Card for Health Professions Trainees and Clinicians

A Veteran's perspective:

"Help me understand my medical condition."

"I had some unique experiences while serving our country, many that civilians would never have. Some of them may be affecting my health, and that is why I am here at VA."

"Please be patient with me. Some of my memories are difficult to discuss."

Asking the questions on this card will clarify a Veterans' medical concerns.

- Ask these questions in a safe and private place.
- Engage with good eye contact.
- Use a supportive tone of voice.
- Thank Veterans if they disclose stressful or traumatic experiences.
- If you suspect someone is actively at risk for suicide, do not leave them alone.

Suicide Prevention Questions

- Would it be okay if I asked you about suicide? (self-directed violence includes suicidal thoughts, self-harm, attempts of suicide, etc.)
- Are you having thoughts of suicide? Have you ever exhibited self-destructive behavior, such as drug abuse, risky use of weapons, etc.?

General Health Questions

Would it be okay if I asked about your current state of health?

- Have you been diagnosed with any illnesses?
- Are you currently taking any medications?
- Are you experiencing any chronic pain?
- Are your vaccinations up to date?

Military-Related Questions

Would it be okay if I talked with you about your military experience? When and where did you serve? In what branch? What type of work did you do while in the service?

If your patient answers "yes" to any of the following questions, ask: Can you tell me more about that ...

- Did you ever become ill while you were in the service?
- Were you or anyone you knew wounded, injured or hospitalized?
- Did you have a head injury with loss of consciousness, loss of memory, "seeing stars" or being temporarily disoriented?
- Were you deployed overseas?
- Did you see combat, enemy fire or casualties?
- Were you a prisoner of war?

Living Conditions

Would it be okay to talk about your living situation?

- Where do you live and who do you live with?
- Is your housing safe?
- Are you at risk of losing your housing?
- Do you need assistance in caring for yourself and/or dependents?

Veterans who are homeless or at imminent risk of homelessness are strongly encouraged to contact the National Call Center for Homeless Veterans at 1-877-4AID-VET for assistance. Veterans are also encouraged to call or visit their local VA medical center and ask for a Homeless Coordinator.

Interpersonal Violence Experience

Would it be okay to ask you about interpersonal violence you may have experienced?

Interpersonal violence can include intimate partner violence, sexual assault/harassment and human trafficking.

- Have you ever experienced physical or emotional abuse, harassment (sexual or identity related) or sexual trauma?
- Is that incident(s) causing you concern now, such as difficulty sleeping, depression, anger, etc.?
- Many Veterans find it helpful to get support, VA is here to help. Would you like a referral to discuss support services?

Compensation and Benefits

Do you have medical conditions you feel may be connected to your service?

Would you like assistance with filing for compensation for injuries/illnesses related to your service?

- Call VA at 1-800-827-1000 or 1-800-698-2411
