VA joins the Nation in observing Pride Month in June. The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT+) community is an integral and growing segment of our workforce diversity. VA is committed to ensuring this workforce diversity and to cultivating workplace inclusion in accordance with the annual Equal Employment Opportunity, Diversity and Inclusion, No FEAR and Whistleblower Rights and Protection Policy Statement and associated VA Directives.

VA demonstrates this commitment through establishing and enforcing policy guidance protecting employees from discrimination or harassment based on sexual orientation or gender identity, and with training on LGBT+ cultural competency, consultation and survey-based needs assessment in this area.

The Department is proactive in its endeavor to recognize and employ best practices that further exemplify the principles of diversity, equity and inclusion. These leading practices were further strengthened by President Biden’s Executive Order on Preventing and Combating Discrimination on the Basis of Gender Identity or Sexual Orientation.

In response to this Executive Order, VA Secretary Denis McDonough distributed a message to all employees outlining the Department’s plan and execution strategy regarding the promotion of gender diversity and sexual orientation inclusivity. This message reiterates VA’s shared commitment that every person at VA, whether a customer or an employee, will be treated with dignity and respect. This same commitment to the principles of diversity, equity and inclusion extends to all VA employees who are representative of many diverse backgrounds, races, national origins and ethnicities.

Through the collective efforts of our combined Special Emphasis Program Managers (SEPMs), the Veterans Health Administration’s Veteran Care Coordinators and several LGBT+ community of practice staff members nationwide, VA will host its first virtual Pride Month which will feature a variety of virtual activities throughout the month of June. This year’s planned Pride Month event, which is unprecedented, is poised to be a collaborative undertaking that will enlighten, educate and hopefully alleviate any misconceptions about the LGBT+ community and the allies who support them.

For information on VA’s LGBT+ Special Emphasis Program or the upcoming virtual VA Pride Month event, contact Sterling Akins, VA’s Departmental LGBT+ SEPM, ORMDI. SEPMs should seek local management approval and consult the Office of Public and Intergovernmental Affairs and/or the District Counsel Office as deemed necessary by local management to ensure that use of VA resources in support of a SEP activity is authorized. Visit VA’s LGBT+ Program Web page for more information.

Having endured years of this policy, which passively encouraged a culture of fear and secrecy for gay soldiers, Snyder-Hill submitted a video to a Republican primary debate held two days after the repeal. In the video he asked for the Republicans' thoughts regarding the repeal and their plans, if any to extend spousal benefits to legally married gay and lesbian soldiers. His video was booed by the audience on national television. Stephen wrote the book: Soldier of Change: From the Closet to the Forefront of the Gay Rights Movement. Snyder-Hill has traveled the country with his husband, giving interviews on major news networks and speaking at universities, community centers, and pride parades, a champion of LGBT+ equality.

Stephen Snyder-Hill joined the military in 1988 and was deployed in 1990 for Operation Desert Storm. He went into the US Army reserves and was redeployed twenty years later in 2010 for Operation New Dawn. Throughout his military career Snyder-Hill received numerous awards and decorations, including the Meritorious Service Medal. He earned a master’s degree in Dietetics and minored in Exercise Physiology at The Ohio State University. He is retired from the US Army as a Major in November of 2019 and works as a Dietitian for Columbus Public Health in Columbus, Ohio.
