Getting Started with Women Veterans Health Services

This guide will help you apply for Women’s Health Care, which includes regular checkups, prescriptions, and access to specialists, such as cardiologists, gynecologists, and mental health providers.

A checklist to help you apply for VA health care:

1. PREPARATION
   - Collect the following information:
     - Discharge papers (DD214 member-4 or equivalent)
     - Your most recent tax return
     - Social security numbers for yourself and your dependents
     - Account numbers for insurance programs you are enrolled in
     - Your VA Disability Rating Decision (if applicable)

2. APPLICATION
   - Apply by completing the health care application form (VA Form 10-10EZ) in one of these ways:
     - Visit us online at https://www.va.gov/health-care/apply/application
     - Give us a call at 877-222-8387 (press 1); M–F, 8 AM–8 PM EST
     - Visit us in-person at a VA Medical Center
     - Print out and mail the completed form to the Health Eligibility Center (2957 Clairmont Road, Suite 200, Atlanta, GA 30329)

3. REVIEW AND DECISION
   - Call 877-222-8387 (press 2) if you haven’t heard back from VA more than one week after you’ve submitted your application

4. NEXT STEPS
   - If approved, take steps to access the benefits you are eligible for:
     - Review priority group assignment and personalized benefit handbook mailed by VA after enrollment
     - Contact your local VA Medical Center to set up an appointment
     - Make an appointment to obtain your Veterans Health Identification Card (VHIC)

WHERE CAN I FIND MY DISCHARGE PAPERS?
Visit https://www.va.gov/records/get-military-servicerecords to request a copy of your DD214.

HOW WILL I FIND OUT ABOUT VA’S DECISION?
If accepted, you’ll receive a phone call from VA and a personalized benefits handbook in the mail. If denied, you’ll receive a letter indicating the reason.

WHAT ARE PRIORITY GROUPS?
During enrollment, each Veteran is assigned to one of eight priority groups based on different factors. Your priority group may affect what type of VA health care services you can access and how much you will need to pay for those services.

WHAT IS A VHIC?
A VHIC is a photo ID that gives you access to VA health care facilities. When you’re enrolled in VA health care, you can get a VHIC by making an appointment with your local VA Medical Center to get your picture taken for your VHIC.
Information you’ll need to know to access VA Women’s health care:

Once you have determined your eligibility for care through the VA, you can go to the nearest VA Medical Center and enroll. You will be offered assignment to a designated Women’s Health Primary Care Provider, who may be working in a women’s clinic, or mixed gender clinic, depending on local arrangements at your site of care. Both provide comprehensive primary care and specialty care to meet the specific health needs and risks of women Veterans.

Can I transfer to a women’s health care team if I am already enrolled in a primary care team?

Yes, if you are assigned to a Primary Care Provider who is not a Women’s Health Provider, you will have the opportunity to be reassigned to a Women’s Health Provider and Patient Aligned Care Team. Contact your Women Veteran Program Manager to discuss.

OTHER QUESTIONS YOU MAY HAVE

How does VA support Military Sexual Trauma (MST) and combat PTSD survivors?

VA offers free counseling and support services that help Veterans recover from trauma. You don’t have to be enrolled in VA health care nor have service-connected disabilities to access MST services. Visit https://www.va.gov/health-care/health-needs-conditions/military-sexual-trauma for more information.

Vet Centers also offer mental health services and counselling. For more information and their location, visit: https://www.vetcenter.va.gov.

What other resources are available?

- Center for Women Veterans (CWV): https://www.va.gov/womenvet
  Its mission is to monitor and coordinate VA's administration of health care, benefits services and programs for women Veterans. The CWV serves as an advocate for cultural transformation and raising awareness of the responsibility to treat women Veterans with dignity and respect.

- Women Veterans Call Center (WVCC): 855-VA-WOMEN (855-829-6636)
  The WVCC staff is trained to provide women Veterans, their families and caregivers information about VA services and resources. The call is free, and you can call as often as you like. The Call Center is available Monday through Friday 8 AM - 10 PM EST, and on Saturdays from 8 AM - 6:30 PM EST. Call, chat or text available.

- Veterans Crisis line at 800-273-8255 and press “1” to receive confidential support 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

- VA HUD-VASH PROGRAM. If you are at risk of becoming homeless, visit https://www.hud.gov/findshelter or ask to speak to a social worker at your VA Medical Center.
