

Education Award

March 6, 2019 | David R. Topor, Ph.D., MS-HPed

Congratulations to Dr. Jennifer Moye on receiving the 2018 VA Boston Healthcare System Excellence in Education Award!

Dr. Moye is a national leader in developing and disseminating educational initiatives to improve the care of older Veterans. She has served as a mentor and supervisor to generations of trainees from across health professions.

One of her nominators wrote: "I cannot think of any other educator who is as deserving of this award. Another wrote: "It is the rare person who is both an incredible teacher and effective leader while being humble and generous."

Congratulations to Dr. Moye on this well-earned and well-deserved Award!!
