Internship Program Admissions

Briefly describe in narrative form important information to assist potential applicants in assessing their likely fit with your program. This description must be consistent with the program's policies on intern selection and practicum and academic preparation requirements:

The mission of the internship training program is the development of psychologists who have the knowledge, skills, and self-awareness necessary to deliver psychological services to diverse populations in a variety of settings, and who practice competently and independently in a professional, empathic, and responsible manner. We provide opportunities for interns to examine a broad range of psychological problems, to develop depth of skill in particular areas of specialization, and to gain practical experiences as preparation for successful entry into postdoctoral or entry-level professional positions including careers within the Veterans Health Administration. To fulfill our training mission, the primary aim of the training program is the development of intermediate to advanced skills in the core competencies of health service psychology. Our training program subscribes to a scientist-practitioner model of education and training for the practice of health service psychology. Our philosophy of supervision at the Cincinnati VA adheres to a competency-based approach, which identifies explicit and measurable standards of performance and tailors training to the developmental needs and skills of our interns. We believe that diversity among departmental members strengthens our staff, stimulates creativity, promotes the exchange of ideas, and allows us to provide more sensitive and effective patient care. We welcome diversity in our Internship class, and we warmly encourage minorities and persons of diverse backgrounds of all types to apply to the Cincinnati VAMC Internship Program.
