

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in postdoctoral training in Clinical Psychology at Edward Hines, Jr. VA Hospital. We are recruiting five Fellows for the 2023-2024 training year. All fellowship positions are for one year.

Our post-doctoral fellowship program offers five emphasis areas within the umbrella of Clinical Psychology. These emphasis areas include:

- Primary Care Mental Health Integration – 1 Fellowship Position
- Geropsychology & Integrated Care Psychology – 1 Fellowship Position
- LGBTQ+ Health Care – 1 Fellowship Position
- Inpatient Medical Psychology – 1 Fellowship Position
- Trauma and Posttraumatic Stress Disorder – 1 Fellowship Position

The Postdoctoral Fellowship Program at Hines VA first began in 2008. In 2012 The Commission on Accreditation completed its Site Visit for the purpose of initial accreditation by APA. Following this site visit our Fellowship Program was awarded 7 years of full APA-Accreditation. Our most recent site visit was in October 2019 and we were awarded 10 years full APA re-accreditation. Our next site visit will be in 2029.

The online brochure is available through a link on our webpage and should provide you with comprehensive information about our program. Our application deadline is DECEMBER 12, 2022. Except under very unusual circumstances, all application materials must be submitted through APPA CAS.

Hines VA will be following the APPIC Selection Guidelines for the 2022/2023 application cycle.

Our training committee and staff enthusiastically welcomes your application and the possibility of providing you postdoctoral training. Please contact Katherine Meyers, Ph.D. by phone or email if you have further questions.

Sincerely,

Katherine Meyers, Ph.D.
