

VA

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

NEWS RELEASE

VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System
Office of Public Affairs
tvhpublicaffairs@va.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jan. 17, 2023

VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System Winter Weather Updates

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – The Bowling Green, Chattanooga, Hopkinsville, and Pointe Centre VA Clinics will be open Thursday, Jan. 18, and all services at the Nashville and Alvin C. York VA Medical Centers remain operational on Jan. 18, except for mental health and primary care, which will be held on VA Video Connect.

All other VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System outpatient clinics are closed on Jan. 18.

Veterans who have an appointment impacted by a clinic closure will have their appointment rescheduled or converted to a telehealth appointment. Veterans unable to attend or wish to reschedule their appointment should contact their provider via secure messaging on My HealtheVet.

VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System is an integrated tertiary health care system comprised of two hospitals, the Alvin C. York Campus in Murfreesboro and the Nashville Campus, as well as more than a dozen community-based outpatient clinics located in Tennessee and Kentucky. TVHS provides ambulatory care, primary care, and secondary care in acute medicine and surgery, specialized tertiary care, transplant services, spinal cord injury outpatient care, and a full range of extended care and mental health services.

###