VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System Outpatient Clinics Closed Jan. 16 due to Inclement Winter Weather

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Due to the inclement winter weather, all VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System outpatient clinics are closed for Tuesday, Jan. 16, 2024.

The Nashville VA and Alvin C. York VA Medical Centers remain operational for emergent and urgent care.

All Veteran appointments for Tuesday will be rescheduled as a virtual care appointment or rescheduled to a later date. VA Video Connect and telehealth appointments scheduled for Jan. 16 will proceed as planned.

Veterans should contact their provider via secure messaging on MyHealtheVet.

VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System is an integrated tertiary health care system comprised of two hospitals, the Alvin C. York Campus in Murfreesboro and the Nashville Campus, as well as more than a dozen community-based outpatient clinics located in Tennessee and Kentucky. TVHS provides ambulatory care, primary care, and secondary care in acute medicine and surgery, specialized tertiary care, transplant services, spinal cord injury outpatient care, and a full range of extended care and mental health services.
