VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System Winter Weather Updates

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System (TVHS) clinics scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 20, will be canceled. Nashville and Alvin C. York VA Medical Centers will maintain normal weekend operations. On Monday, Jan. 22, all TVHS hospitals and clinics will return to normal operations.

Veterans who have an appointment impacted by a clinic closure will have their appointment rescheduled or converted to a telehealth appointment. Veterans who wish to reschedule an appointment should contact their provider via secure messaging on My HealthVet.

VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System is an integrated tertiary health care system comprised of two hospitals, the Alvin C. York Campus in Murfreesboro and the Nashville Campus, as well as more than a dozen community-based outpatient clinics located in Tennessee and Kentucky. TVHS provides ambulatory care, primary care, and secondary care in acute medicine and surgery, specialized tertiary care, transplant services, spinal cord injury outpatient care, and a full range of extended care and mental health services.
