VA to Host PACT Act Veterans Resource Fair in Murfreesboro

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System (TVHS) will host a PACT Act Veterans Resource Fair March 8, 2024 at Middle Tennessee State University’s Miller Education Center. The event will be held at 503 East Bell Street in Murfreesboro from 2 p.m. – 6 p.m.

The PACT Act is a law passed in 2022 that expands VA health care and benefits for Veterans exposed to burn pits, Agent Orange, and other toxic substances. During the PACT Act Veterans Resource Fair, eligible Veterans will be able to:

- Learn about the expanded PACT Act benefits.
- Initiate a claim with Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) representatives and ask questions about claims.
- Enroll in VA health care and learn about additional VA programs.

A speaking engagement featuring representatives from TVHS and VBA Nashville Regional Office will be held at 3 p.m. The following VA programs will be available during the PACT Act Resource Fair:

Veterans Benefits Administration

VA health care eligibility and enrollment

Women Veteran Program

Military2VA Program, and more!

VA Tennessee Valley Healthcare System is an integrated tertiary health care system comprised of two hospitals, the Alvin C. York Campus in Murfreesboro and the Nashville Campus, as well as more than a dozen community-based outpatient clinics located in Tennessee and Kentucky. TVHS provides ambulatory care, primary care, and secondary care in acute medicine and surgery, specialized tertiary care, transplant services, spinal cord injury outpatient care, and a full range of extended care and mental health services.
