Promise to Address Comprehensive Toxics (PACT) Act

The PACT Act expands VA health care and benefits for Veterans exposed to burn pits, Agent Orange, and other toxic substances. The PACT Act enables the VA to provide these Veterans and their survivors with the care and benefits they've earned and deserve. Call (800) 698-2411, or please visit VA.gov/PACT for more information.

MISSION Act

The MISSION Act increases Veterans' access to quality health care. It empowers Veterans to have more choices about where and when they receive their health care.

Under the MISSION Act, Veterans can:

- Still choose to have the VA provide their care at VA facilities;
- Receive approved care virtually with Telehealth (health care using a telephone or a computer);
- Work with their VA health care team to see if they meet the criteria to receive their health care through approved non-VA medical providers in the community. Veterans need to be enrolled in VA health care to use community care benefits.
- For more information, please visit www.missionact.va.gov, or call (800) 698-2411.

Ethics Consult

If you need help in making difficult decisions about your medical treatment, ask your health care team for an Ethics consult. The Bay Pines Integrated Ethics Council will answer your questions, provide information, and help you make your health care decisions.

Fire and Disaster Drills

Bay Pines VAHCS has periodic fire and disaster drills. If you hear the fire alarm, stay calm and follow the staff's instructions.

Health Care Team

Your Bay Pines VAHCS health care team includes doctors, nurses, social workers, pharmacists, and all members of our staff who provide care for you.

We use the Patient Aligned Care Team (PACT) health care model to provide excellent health care to our Veterans. PACT emphasizes teams and coordinated care. PACT members inform Veterans of their health care options, respect their choices, and strive to meet our Veterans' health care goals.

Patient Check In (PCI) Tool

Bay Pines VAHCS has replaced the VetLink check-in kiosks with the Patient Check In Tool (PCI). PCI is a faster, more efficient way for Veterans to check in for their appointments.

PCI allows Veterans to use their smartphone to complete the check-in requirements for their appointments. Veterans can also scan the PCI check-in QR code with their smartphone's camera. They will then receive a check-in link. By tapping on the link, Veterans can complete the check-in process.

PCI has many benefits for Veterans:

- Veterans can start the pre-check-in process from anywhere up to seven days before a scheduled appointment by using their smartphone.
- Veterans can avoid lines at the check-in desk on the day of their appointment.
- PCI is an easy way for Veterans to verify their demographic information prior to their appointment.

Veterans who do not own a smartphone or prefer not to use their smartphone may still check-in to their appointments in person. If Veterans choose not to use PCI, this will not affect access to their VA health care or benefits.

Please do not bring any weapons onto VA property. If you have weapons, you must give them to the Bay Pines VAHCS Police Service to hold during your stay here. Their phone number is (727) 398-6661 or (888) 820-0230, ext. 10313.

Advance Directives

Advance Directives are legal forms that state your preferences about your future medical and mental health care. If you become too ill to make decisions about your care, an Advance Directive can help your doctors and family understand what you want.

It is up to you to decide if you want an Advance Directive. Your decision will not affect your access to health care or other Veterans Health Administration (VHA) services.

There are two types of Advance Directives: Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care, and a Living Will. In the VA, these two types can be completed in one form. You may complete neither, one, or both of the following:

Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care

In this type of Advance Directive, you name a person as your Health Care Agent. If you are not able to make your own health care decisions, your health care team will contact your Health Care Agent to make those decisions for you.

Living Will

In this type of Advance Directive, you state your preferences about treatments you want or do not want in different situations when you cannot make treatment decisions yourself. A Living Will helps your Health Care Agent or other people know which treatments you would choose.

Advance Directives are important documents that we recommend you have in your medical records. Ask our staff for more information.

Your Rights:

- You have the right to accept or refuse any medical treatment.
- You have the right to complete a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care.
- You have the right to complete a Living Will.

Your Responsibilities:

- If you have an Advance Directive, it is important to give the Bay Pines VAHCS a copy for your health record.
- If you have questions about filling out an Advance Directive, please ask our staff to help you.

For more information, please visit www.baypines.va.gov/patients/advance.asp.

Billing, Insurance, and Copayments

If you have private health insurance, bring your health insurance information and picture identification with you to your appointment at Bay Pines VAHCS. The VA bills private health insurance companies for care received by Veterans at VA facilities. The VA has established guidelines for Veterans and their copayments. Copayments may be charged for different services, including inpatient care, outpatient care, prescriptions, and long-term care.

Copayments can be paid at the C.W. Bill Young VA Medical Center at the Agent Cashier's office in Bldg. 100, Room 1E-110, or by mail. If your insurance company pays for some of your charges, you will receive a credit on your bill. If you have questions about your copay balance, please call the VA Health Resource Center at (866) 793-4591.

Identification

During the admission process, an identification (ID) band is placed on your wrist. You must wear it at all times so that we can verify your identity and treat you. Your ID band could save your life in an emergency. Tell your nurse if your ID band becomes damaged.

Medicines

Please do not bring any prescription or over-the-counter medicines, or controlled substances with you when you are admitted as an inpatient here. Controlled substances brought by inpatients must be given to the Veteran's family or representative to take home, or be turned over to the Bay Pines VAHCS Police Service. We are not allowed to store these medicines when you are an inpatient here.

Your Bay Pines VAHCS doctor will order the medicines you need during your hospital stay. You should only take the medicines your doctor orders for you when you are here.

Your doctor may give you prescriptions to take at home after you are discharged. You can fill these prescriptions at any Bay Pines VAHCS Outpatient Pharmacy during normal business hours.

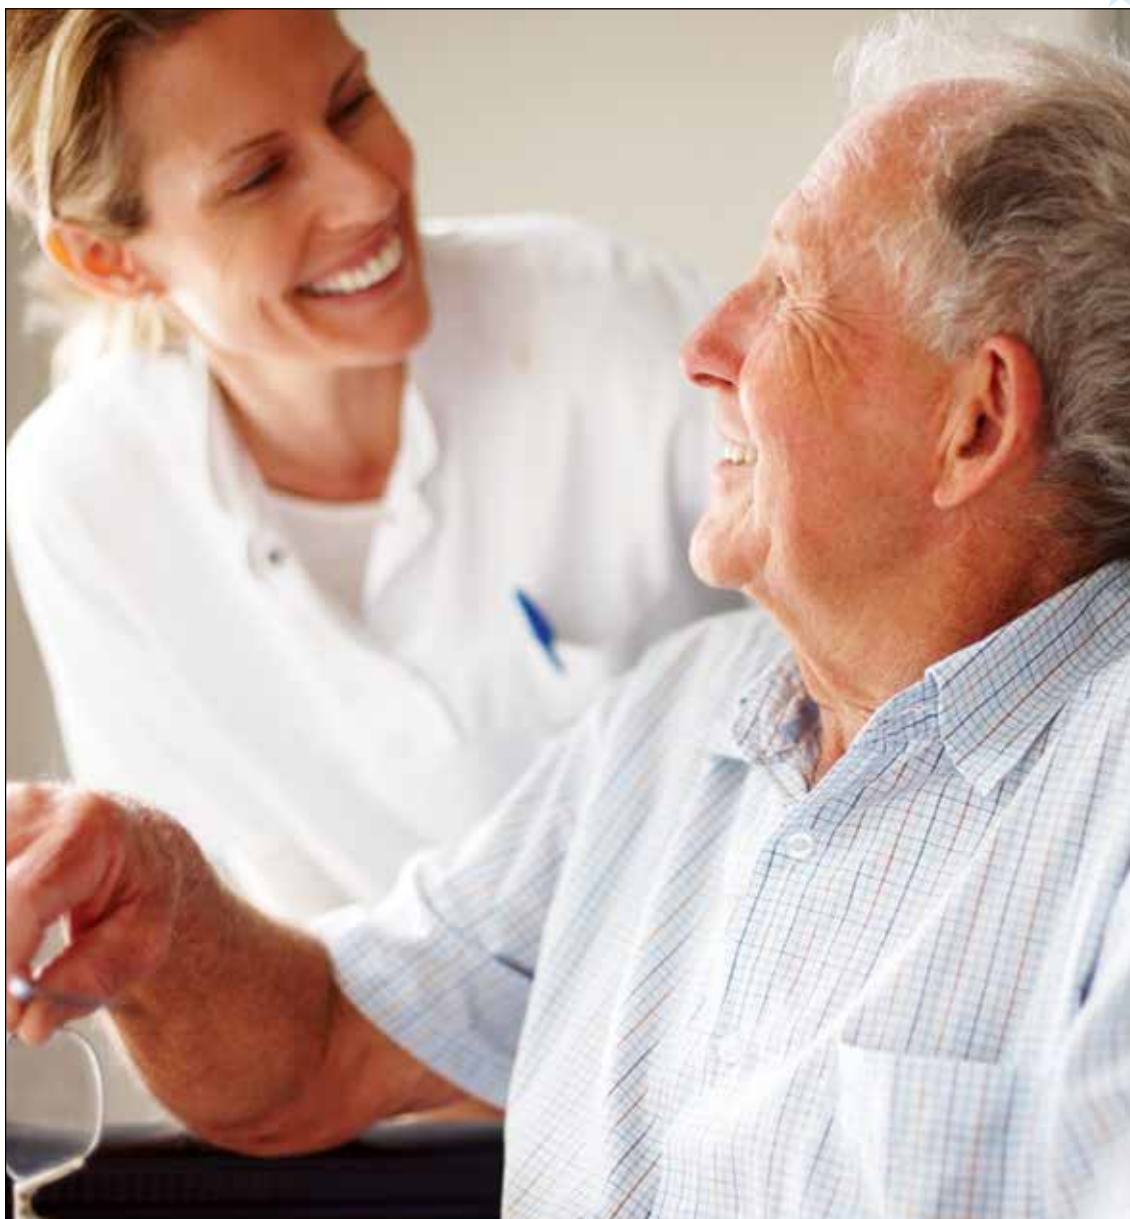

Patient Directory

During the admission process, you can choose to be listed in the Patient Directory. This allows you to receive visitors and telephone calls. If you change your mind about being listed in the Patient Directory, please tell your health care team.

Personal Identification Number (PIN)

Each patient who is admitted to the C.W. Bill Young VA Medical Center can choose to have a PIN. If a patient would like someone to be able to find out about his/her health information, such as their condition, scheduled procedures, or expected date of discharge, the patient must give that person his/her PIN. Staff will only discuss patient health information with callers or visitors who are able to give the PIN for the patient.

Telephones for Inpatients

Telephones are located at the bedside in Bldg. 100 and in the Community Living Center. Your telephone number is listed in your room.

Patient Safety

Bay Pines VAHCS Cares About Your Safety

Our goal at Bay Pines VAHCS is to provide our patients with safe and excellent care. Everyone has a role in making your care safe: physicians, nurses, clinicians, and you. We hope you will be an active and involved member of your health care team.

If you have concerns about your safety and care at Bay Pines VAHCS, SPEAKUP and tell your health care team, nurse manager, program manager, supervisor, service chief, or other management staff.

If you think your concerns are not being met, you may contact the Patient Advocate, Administrative Officer of the Day (AOD), or The Joint Commission (TJC).

Germ (ARG's and MRSA)

Antibiotic-Resistant Germs (ARG's) are germs that many common antibiotics do not kill. Special antibiotics are used to treat ARG infections. ARG's can live on people, animals, and surfaces for weeks. ARG's can sometimes cause serious infection and death. Clean hands and good hygiene can help prevent the spread of ARG's in hospitals, clinics, the Community Living Center, homes, and other places.

People at risk for getting ARG's include the young, elderly, people who have recently taken antibiotics, have chronic diseases or invasive devices (tubes and drains going into the body), and people who have been in crowds. ARG carriers have an ARG living in or on their body, and they can pass the germs to patients and staff.

Bay Pines VAHCS uses many precautions to prevent the hospital spread of ARG's, such as placing patients with an ARG in a private room (or in a room with other people having the same ARG), wearing gowns and gloves, extra cleaning, and educating patients and staff.

Methicillin-Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus (MRSA) is an example of an ARG. Bay Pines VAHCS provides MRSA testing for all VA patients. Our staff tests for MRSA by rubbing a cotton swab in the patient's nose. All VA patients have the right to accept or refuse any treatment or procedure, including MRSA testing. Your decision will not affect your right to receive VA health care.

Infection Control

Hand Hygiene

Clean hands save lives! Over 80 percent of infectious diseases are spread by hands. Germs are everywhere, including on our bodies, animals, and furniture.

Hand hygiene is the key to infection control. Wash your hands when they look or feel dirty. Rub and lather all surfaces of your hands for 15 to 20 seconds. Rinse your hands and dry them with a paper towel. Use a paper towel to turn off the water in public places.

Clean your hands often and well, especially before and after:

- Eating and preparing food
- Taking medicine
- Going to the bathroom
- Visiting or caring for the sick
- Touching cuts, wounds, blood, or body fluids
- Touching or blowing your nose
- Touching garbage or dirty items

Make sure your health care staff, family, and visitors clean their hands before they visit you or take care of you.

Help Prevent the Spread of Infections and Viruses.

- Wash your hands frequently with soap and water for at least twenty seconds. Use hand sanitizer when you can't use soap and water.
- Keep six feet from other people when possible.
- Wear a mask over your nose and mouth when possible to help prevent the spread of viruses, such as the flu or COVID.
- If you need to cough or sneeze, cover your mouth and nose with a tissue, or cough and sneeze in your sleeve. Discard the tissue after use. Clean your hands with soap and water.

For information on Infection Control, call (727) 398-6661 or (888) 820-0230, ext. 15949.

Preventing Falls

To help prevent falls:

- Use your eyeglasses, hearing aids, and personal assistive devices, such as canes and walkers. If you need to use a device while you are here, tell a member of your health care team.
- Wear non-slip footwear when you are out of bed.
- Call for help if you feel unsteady when moving from your bed to a chair, walking, or when you need items that are hard to reach.
- Make sure your wheelchair is locked and the foot pedals are up before sitting down or standing up.
- Pause for a few seconds when changing position (such as lying down to sitting, or sitting to standing) to allow your body time to adjust to the change.
- Avoid bending to pick up items. Ask your nurse for help.
- Tell your doctor or nurse if you feel dizzy or lightheaded.
- If you are on bed rest and need an item, use the nurse call button to ask for help.

SPEAKUP

SPEAKUP is a national campaign to urge patients to take a role in preventing health care errors by being active, involved, and informed partners of their health care team.

SPEAKUP stands for:

- Speak up if you have questions or concerns. If you do not understand something, ask again. It is your body and you have a right to know.
- Pay attention to the care you are receiving to make sure you receive the correct treatments and medicines by your health care providers. Do not assume anything.
- Educate yourself about your diagnosis, the medical tests you are having, and your treatment plan.
- Ask a family member or friend you trust to be your advocate.
- Know what medicines you take, and why you take them.
- Understand the quality of care you receive.
- Participate in all decisions about your treatment. You are the center of your health care team.

Patient Rights and Responsibilities

Rights and Responsibilities of VA Patients and Residents of Community Living Centers (CLC)

The Veterans Health Administration (VHA) is pleased you have selected us to provide your health care. We will provide you with personalized, patient-driven, compassionate, state-of-the-art care. Our goal is to make your experience as positive and pleasant as we can. As part of our service to you, to other Veterans, and to the nation, we are committed to improving health care quality. We also train future health care professionals, conduct research, and support our country in times of national emergency. In all of these activities, our employees will respect and support your rights as a patient or resident of a community living center (CLC). Your basic rights and responsibilities are outlined in this document. You will receive this information in your preferred language. Please talk with the VA treatment team members who are providing your care or to a patient advocate if you have any questions, or would like more information about your rights and responsibilities.

1. Nondiscrimination and Respect

- You will be treated with dignity, compassion, and respect as an individual. Consistent with federal law, VA policy, and accreditation standards of The Joint Commission, you will not be subject to discrimination for any reason, including for reasons of age, race, ethnicity, religion, culture, language, physical or mental disability, socioeconomic status, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression.
- You will receive care in a safe environment, free from excess noise, and with sufficient light to ensure comfort and safety.
- You have a right to have access to the outdoors.
- We will seek to honor your cultural and personal values, beliefs, and preferences. We ask that you identify any cultural, religious, or spiritual beliefs or practices that influence your care.
- You or someone you choose has the right to keep and spend your money. You have the right to receive an accounting of any funds that the VA is holding for you.
- We will respect your personal freedoms in the care and treatment we provide you. This includes trying to accommodate your normal sleep and wake cycles, food likes and dislikes, and other personal preferences.
- In the Community Living Center, you have the right to be free from chemical and physical restraints. In the inpatient acute care setting, and only in rare cases, the use of chemical and physical restraints may be used if all other efforts to keep you or others free from harm have not worked.
- In the Community Living Center, you may keep personal items, and you are expected to wear your own clothes. As an inpatient, you may wear your own clothes, depending on your medical condition.
- You have the right to keep and use personal items, as long as they are safe and legal.
- You have the right to social interaction and regular exercise. You will have the opportunity for religious worship and spiritual support. You may decide whether to participate in these activities. You may decide whether or not to perform tasks in or for the Medical Center, or in the Community Living Center.

- You have the right to communicate freely and privately. You will have access to public telephones, and the VA will assist you in sending and receiving mail. You may participate in civic rights, such as voting and free speech.
- When a loved one is involved in support and care of a VA patient or CLC resident, the VA considers a patient or CLC resident's family to include anyone related to the patient or CLC resident in any way (for example, biologically or legally), and anyone whom the patient or CLC resident considers to be family. If you are an inpatient, any people you choose can be with you to support you during your stay. Medical staff may restrict visitors for inpatients if medical or safety concerns require it. You will be told promptly about any visitor restriction and the reason for it.
- In order to provide a safe treatment environment for all patients and CLC residents and staff, you and your visitors are expected to avoid unsafe acts that place others at risk for accidents or injuries. Please immediately report any condition you believe to be unsafe.

2. Participation in Treatment Decisions

- Your privacy will be protected.
- You will be given information about the health benefits you can receive. The information will be provided in a way you can understand.
- You will receive information about the costs of your care (for example, co-payments), if any, before you are treated. You are responsible for paying your portion of any costs associated with your care.
- Your health record will be kept confidential. Information about you will not be released without your authorization, unless permitted by law. An example of this is state public health reporting. You have the right to have access to, and to request a copy of your health records.

Patient Rights and Responsibilities

- Please respect the privacy of other patients and CLC residents, and do not reveal any of their health information that you may become aware of, or information that you may overhear.

3. Partnering in Care

- You have a right to express your preferences concerning future medical care in an Advance Directive, including designating a health care agent to make health care decisions on your behalf when you can no longer do so.
- You, and any people you choose, will be involved in all decisions about your care. You will be given information you can understand about the benefits and risks of treatment in your preferred language. You will be given other options. You can agree to or refuse any treatment. You will be told what is likely to happen to you if you refuse a treatment. Refusing a treatment will not affect your rights to future care, but you each take responsibility for the impact this decision may have on your health.
- Tell your provider about your current condition, prescription medicines, over-the-counter medicines, and medical history. Share any other information that affects your health. You should ask questions when you do not understand something about your care. This will help us provide you the best care possible.
 - You will be given, in writing, the name and title of the provider in charge of your care. You have the right to be involved in choosing your provider. You also have the right to know the names and titles of those who provide you care. This includes students and other trainees. Providers will properly introduce themselves when they take part in your care.
 - You will be educated about your role and responsibilities as a patient or CLC resident. This includes your participation in decision making and care at the end of life.
 - If you believe you cannot follow the treatment plan, you have a responsibility to tell your provider or treatment team.
 - You will be informed of all outcomes of your care, including any possible injuries associated with your care. You will be informed about how to request compensation and other remedies for any serious injuries.
 - You have the right to have your pain assessed and to receive treatment to manage your pain. You and your treatment team will develop a pain management plan together. You are expected to help the treatment team by telling them if you have pain, and if the treatment is working.
 - As an inpatient or CLC resident, you will be provided any transportation necessary for your treatment plan.

- You have the right to choose whether or not you will participate in any research project. Any research will be clearly identified. Potential risks of the research will be identified and there will be no pressure on you to participate.
- You will be included in resolving any ethical issues about your care. If you have ethical issues or concerns, you may ask the Medical Center's Ethics Council for help.

4. Concerns or Complaints

- You are encouraged and expected to seek help from your treatment team or a patient advocate if you have problems or complaints. Any privacy complaints will be addressed by the facility Privacy Officer. You will be given understandable information about the complaint process in your preferred language. You may complain verbally or in writing, without fear of retaliation.
- If you believe that you or your family member has been neglected, abused, or exploited by VA staff, please report this promptly to the treatment team or patient advocate. You will receive help immediately.
- If you believe the organization has failed to address or satisfy your concerns about health care quality and safety, you may contact The Joint Commission's Office of Quality Monitoring at (800) 994-6610. If you believe that the organization has failed to address your concerns about suspected criminal activities, fraud, waste, abuse, or mismanagement, you may contact the VA Office of the Inspector General at (800) 488-8244, or e-mail vaoighotline@VA.gov.

5. Additional Rights and Responsibilities of Community Living Center Residents

- Because the CLC serves as your home for short or long-stay services, you have the following additional rights and responsibilities as a CLC resident:
 - Staff will knock on your bedroom door prior to entry.
 - You have the right to receive care from the same staff member every day, to the extent that consistent assignment is possible.
 - You may have visitors at any time of the day or night, provided visitors are respectful of you, your need for privacy, and the privacy of others. You may refuse to have visitors at any time.
 - You have a right to conjugal visits, and you have a right to privacy during those visits.
 - Your care will be delivered in a setting that resembles home. Therefore, you will be invited to have your meals in a designated dining area, and you will have access to those activities that contribute to meaningful use of time.
 - In preparation for being discharged to your own home, you and/or your caregiver may be invited to participate in activities that prepare you to go home, such as self-administration of medicines and treatments.
 - You and your caregivers have a right to attend treatment-planning meetings, and to participate in household or resident councils.

Notification to Patients of The Joint Commission Standards Modifying Rights and Responsibilities of VA Patients and Residents of Community Living Centers (CLC)

In accordance with requirements from The Joint Commission, the VA has added the following statement to visitation policies for all hospitals throughout the system.

“The Medical Center respects the patient’s right to make decisions about his or her care, treatment, and services, and to involve the patient’s family in care, services, and treatment decisions, to the extent permitted by the patient or surrogate decision-maker. ‘Family’ is defined as a group of two or more persons united by blood, or adoptive, marital, domestic partnership, or other legal ties.

The family may also be a person or persons not legally related to the individual (such as a significant other, friend, or caregiver) whom the individual considers to be family. A family member may be the surrogate decision-maker, as defined in VHA Handbook 1004.02, if authorized to make care decisions for the individual, should he or she lose decision-making capacity. The Medical Center allows a family member, friend, or other individual to be present with the patient for emotional support during the course of a stay.

The Medical Center allows for the presence of a support individual of the patient’s choice, unless the individual’s presence infringes on others’ rights or safety, or is medically or therapeutically contraindicated. The individual may or may not be the patient’s surrogate decision-maker or legally authorized representative. The hospital prohibits discrimination based on age, race, ethnicity, religion, culture, language, physical or mental disability, socioeconomic status, sex, sexual orientation, and gender identity or expression.”

You are encouraged and expected to seek help from your treatment team or a patient advocate if you have any problems or complaints. You will be given understandable information about the complaint process. You may complain verbally or in writing, without fear of retaliation.

Rights and Responsibilities of Family Members of VA Patients and Residents of Community Living Centers (CLC)

The Veterans Health Administration (VHA) is pleased to provide health care to Veterans. We will provide personalized, patient-driven, compassionate, state-of-the-art care. Our goal is to make the experience as positive and pleasant as we can. As part of our service to Veterans and to the nation, we are committed to improving health care quality. We also train future health care professionals, conduct research, and support our country in times of national emergency. In all of these activities, our employees will respect and support the rights of patients and residents of community living centers (CLC), as well as your rights as a family member. This document outlines the basic rights and responsibilities of family members. Please talk with the VHA treatment team or a patient advocate if you have any questions, or would like more information about these rights and responsibilities.

1. Nondiscrimination and Respect

- Our staff will create a treatment environment based on dignity, compassion, and respect. Consistent with federal law, VA policy, and accreditation standards of The Joint Commission, Veterans and their family members will not be subject to discrimination for any reason, including for reasons of age, race, ethnicity, religion, culture, language, physical or mental disability, socioeconomic status, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression.
- We seek to honor the cultural and personal values, beliefs, and preferences of all patients, CLC residents, and their families. When a loved one is involved in support and care of a VA patient or resident, the VA considers a patient or resident's family to include anyone related to the patient or resident in any way (for example, biologically or legally), and anyone whom the patient or resident considers to be family.
- Please help us offer care in a safe and respectful manner by treating patients, CLC residents, other family members, and staff with respect, and by following the facility's rules. Family members are not allowed to do things that threaten the care of patients, or interfere with our staff members' ability to do their job.

2. Keeping Health Information Private and Secure

- The Veteran's private health care information will be protected to the fullest extent authorized by law. Information about the Veteran may be disclosed to you if the Veteran authorizes the release, or if you are the Veteran's personal representative.
- Please respect the privacy of patients, residents, and other family members, and do not reveal private health care information that you may become aware of, or may overhear.

3. Partnering in Care

- Families are valued members of the VA health care team. As members of the health care team, we encourage you to:
 - Share your insights, opinions, and observations about the Veteran's care and progress.
 - Let the nursing staff know right away if you feel that the Veteran's condition has changed.

- Tell us right away if you are worried about the Veteran's care or treatment. Please ask questions if you do not understand the purpose of any part of the Veteran's care.
- If you are a family member of a CLC resident, you have a right to participate and share your voice and opinions in family, resident, or household councils.

4. Family Members' Role in Treatment Decisions

- Veterans have a right to make their own health care decisions, as long as they are able to understand and tell their doctor and health care team what they want. Veterans have a right to include or not include others, such as family members or friends, in decisions about their care.
- Veterans have a right to express their preferences about future medical care in an Advance Directive. This includes the right to name a health care agent who will make health care decisions on their behalf if they can no longer communicate for themselves. We will respect these preferences.
- If you are asked to make health care decisions for a Veteran in VHA, the treatment team will offer you:
 - Treatment options based on the Veteran's unique medical circumstances and needs
 - Information you can understand about the benefits and risks of these treatment options
 - An interpreter or assistive device, if needed, to help you understand the Veteran's medical circumstances and treatment options
- As the health care decision maker, you generally have the same rights and responsibilities that the Veteran would have in making treatment decisions.
 - You may agree to or refuse any treatment option offered by the treatment team. Refusing treatment will not affect the Veteran's right to future care.
 - Your decision about whether to accept or refuse treatments must be based on what you know the Veteran would want. If you do not know what the Veteran would want, the treatment team is available to help you consider what decisions are in the Veteran's best interest.
- When you are the health care decision maker, please:
 - Share accurate and complete information about the Veteran's medical history to help us develop the best treatment plan.
 - Take part in discussions and decisions about the Veteran's care.
 - Help the treatment team understand how they can provide care that takes into account the Veteran's cultural and personal values, beliefs, and preferences.
 - Talk with the treatment team when you think the Veteran's treatment plan may need to be changed.
 - Let the treatment team know if you are not willing or able to follow the treatment plan. If the treatment team understands why the plan may be a problem, they may be able to make changes that address your concerns.
 - Help us plan for the Veteran's move to the next level of care.

5. Visiting the Veteran

- Family visits can help you support the Veteran as he/she copes with illness or injuries. Schedule your visit to meet the Veteran's medical and emotional needs. For example, many patients get tired easily, so short visits may be better.
- VA Community Living Centers have unrestricted visiting hours.
- On VA acute care inpatient units, medical staff may need to restrict visiting hours, or place other visiting restrictions if medical or safety concerns require it. You will be promptly informed about any visitor restriction and the reason for it.
- Please keep a close eye on your children for their own safety and the safety of others. Children should never be left unattended.
- At times, patients or CLC residents may not wish to have visitors, or may wish to set other limits on visits. We will respect the Veteran's wishes for visits.

6. Concerns or Complaints

- If you need advice on how to resolve an ethical concern about the Veteran's care, you may speak with the Medical Center's Ethics Council.
- You are encouraged and expected to seek help from the VA health care treatment team or a patient advocate if you have problems or complaints. You will be given understandable information about the complaint process in your preferred language. Any privacy complaints will be addressed by the facility Privacy Officer. You may complain verbally or in writing, without fear of retaliation.
- If you believe that you or the Veteran have been neglected, abused, or exploited by VA staff, please report this to the patient advocate, your doctor, or nurse as soon as feasible, because each complaint concerns all staff. All Veterans in our nation will receive help immediately.
- If you have concerns about the quality of the health care that the Veteran is receiving, you may contact the VHA Office of the Medical Inspector at (800) 634-4782.
- If you believe the organization has failed to address or satisfy your concerns about health care quality and safety, you may contact The Joint Commission's Office of Quality Monitoring at (800) 994-6610. If you believe that the organization has failed to address your concerns about suspected criminal activities, fraud, waste, abuse, or mismanagement, you may contact the VA Office of the Inspector General at (800) 488-8244 or e-mail vaogh hotline@VA.gov.
