

I Love Memphis

The I Love Memphis blog is a great resource for what's going on in Memphis: music, food, arts, events, sports, people, culture, and anything else that makes us special. Memphians love Elvis and barbeque with a passion that must be seen to be believed, but there is so much more to this place. This blog aims to show that through posts written from an honest, local perspective.

NOW IS THE TIME.
MEMPHIS IS THE PLACE.

Choose901 is a movement of passionate Memphians who want to invest and enjoy their lives in the Bluff City. Choose901 exists to share these great things and introduce these great people to each other while being a positive megaphone to the rest of the world.
