

Wherever You Go, You're Home

VA Travel Nurse Corps: Enjoy a consistency of practice at every assignment.

Leaving home for a career as a VA travel nurse can take you anywhere – from Alaska to Florida or from Hawaii to Maine. But no matter where you venture, you'll enjoy a stable, consistent practice throughout the largest integrated health care network in the Nation. We have one orientation that provides our travel nurses with the knowledge and resources needed to practice at all of our facilities. Plus, our major technologies are the same nationwide.

VA travel nurses earn a competitive salary, plus many other benefits:

- Paid orientation
- Paid travel to, from, and during assignment
- Travel advances, as needed
- Government travel card
- Paid lodging at first-rate apartments and hotels
- Daily stipend for meals and incidentals
- Laundry and telephone support
- Online tools to track payroll and travel expenses
- Flexible assignment lengths
- Shift/weekend differentials and holiday pay
- One state license valid at every VA facility nationwide; no re-licensing required
- Unlimited opportunities across multiple practice settings

When you become a VA travel nurse, you'll feel at home everywhere you go.
